

Watch The Golden Road

An informative and absorbing 30-minute video for and about older drivers

The Golden Road contains vital information about how to maintain mobility for seniors without compromising safety. It pays special attention to the powerful and positive role friends and family members can provide. The realities and concerns around senior driving will only grow as our society ages. The Golden Road deals with the difficult questions: When should a senior relinquish the keys—or someone step in and remove them? How can you help an elderly relative or neighbor remain free and engaged?

All 14 California Public Television stations will air The Golden Road October 25, 2005---ensuring that you can watch it wherever you are.

This universal statewide showing is believed to be a California first, linking PBS stations in a joint effort to bring a valuable message to seniors and their families everywhere.
